

For Immediate Release

Contact: Kara Borie, SCDOC, 803.737.1998

Myrtle Beach Recycling Inc. Announces New Facility in Horry County
Investment expected to bring 15 new jobs to the area

COLUMBIA, S.C. – April 21, 2010 – The South Carolina Department of Commerce and the Myrtle Beach Regional Economic Development Corporation (MBREDC) today announced that Myrtle Beach Recycling Inc. will locate its new operations in Horry County. The $5 million investment is expected to generate 15 new jobs.

“We are pleased to locate our new facility in Horry County and look forward to beginning operations there. South Carolina provides us with an excellent business climate and a top-notch workforce. Horry County also had a building that provided the perfect fit for our company’s needs. We appreciate all the support we have received from state and local officials,” said Joe Juliano, owner of Myrtle Beach Recycling.

Myrtle Beach Recycling is a new company that will focus on paper recycling services. Myrtle Beach Recycling is a “green industry” company, helping to reduce the amount of waste that would otherwise go into landfills.

“South Carolina continues to see positive results from enhancements to our state’s business-friendly climate, and Myrtle Beach Recycling’s decision to locate operations here is another sign of how small businesses and innovation benefit when tax and regulatory burdens are low. It is important, now more than ever, that work we work to continue to strength the fundamentals that support the growth of small business because start-ups and existing small businesses play a vital role in providing job opportunities for many South Carolinians,” said Joe Taylor, Secretary of Commerce. “We are pleased to welcome Myrtle Beach Recycling to our state’s business community and wish them much success in their endeavors here.”

“We are delighted to welcome Myrtle Beach Recycling, Inc. to the business community. Recycling improves the environment and creates jobs in the process. This is an exciting project and we look forward to working with this company in the future,” said MBREDC Chairman Jimmy Yahnis.

The company plans to begin hiring for the positions in mid-May. Anyone interested in finding out about job opportunities with the company should contact the Coastal Workforce Center at 843-234-9675.

About S.C. Department of Commerce

The S.C. Department of Commerce works closely with economic development professionals throughout the state to recruit new jobs and investments and help existing businesses grow. Commerce has been recognized for its success in the areas of job creation and economic impact by Area Development and Business Facilities magazines. The S.C. Department of Commerce was one of 10 state economic development organizations to receive Area Development’s Silver Shovel Award in 2009 and Commerce received the 2009 Deal of the Year award from Business Facilities magazine. Commerce received the top prize for Boeing’s selection of North Charleston for the company’s second final assembly plant for the 787 Dreamliner program. In addition to job and investment recruitment, the agency provides a range of business support services, offers grants for community development and infrastructure improvements, and provides tools to enhance workforce skills. For more information, visit www.SCcommerce.com.

-###-