A GROWING STANDARD OF EXCELLENCE IN SOUTH CAROLINA

MYRTLE BEACH

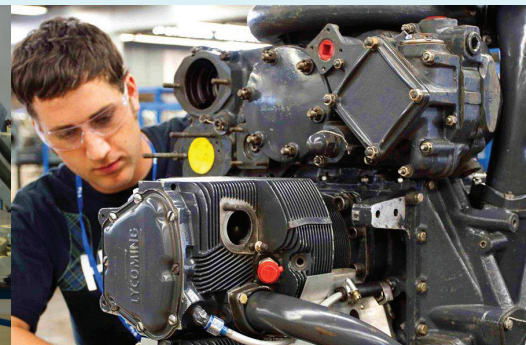

REGIONAL ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT

CATCH THE RISING TIDE

As growth in the manufacturing industry continues in the United States, South Carolina is a premier location for global manufacturing companies. With access to a well-trained, readily available workforce and affordable operating environment, the Myrtle Beach area has seen tremendous growth over the last five years, with the additions of companies like BauschLinnemann NA, PTR Industries and Accent Stainless Steel.

Specialized workforce development and training programs available in machine operations, CNC, welding, robotics, engineering and more.

The Southeastern Institute of Manufacturing & Technology (SiMT) offers the only commercially available 3D metals printer in the Southeast, making additive manufacturing a viable option for the production of metal parts and prototypes.
